MULBERRY.

Mr. George Berry has returned home from the post at Ft. Oglethorpe where he has been preparing dainty meals for Uncle Sam's men. Mrs. M. J. Smith, 1403 Pearl Street, Nashville, was in our town the past week on business and was seen shaking hands with her many friends and relatives. While here she stopped with Mrs. Orazell Vintant, the sister of Dr. J. H. Smith. Sunday was a great day at St. John A. M. E. Church, the first quarterly conference in this conference year was held by our worthy Presiding Elder, Dr. Jessie Jenkins. Dr. Jenkins preached to a large audience Sunday at 11 a. m. He selected for his text, 2 Kings 4:24, "Drive and go forward." Many souls were made to feel happy. The business part of the conference, Monday night was remarkable. Amid this high cost of living, $55.80 was laid on the table and you see St. John is in full bloom under the leadership of Rev. W. T. Denny. Dr. Denny must be the right man for Mulberry for it is true Bishop Lee knows when great men are needed. St. John will never trail as long as she is lead by such men as this long since needed. He has made many friends here. Mrs. Emily Sebastian is some better at this writing. Johnnie Reese of Brownsville is at Turner College and Carl Parks is expecting to do the same. Read the Globe. Mulberry is still on the map.

SPRINGHILL.

Sunday was such a cold day there was not any service here at all, though the Rev. Green Thompson was here as it was his day, but the day was such a bad one he thought best not to hold any service as the majority of his members live across the creek. Mr. S. B. Bond, Sr., the Superintendent of Mt. Hope Missionary Baptist Sunday school was at his post of duty as usual with his children. The young ladies of the M. E. Church are busy getting ready for Xmas exercises and they are hoping for a grand time. Mrs. Ada Baugaus had a very mysterious accident to happen to her house on last Thursday while at her sister's, Mrs. Davis, her bed in some way caught fire and burned all of the bed clothing off of the bed. It seems a mystery to every body how it caught as she did not have any fire in her house. Mrs. Baugaus was at her sister's working in her hog killing as she had her hogs down there. Mrs. Baugaus lives on the farm of Mr. Brice Martin and by the goodness of one of her neighbors, Mrs. Jenkins and husband, they broke in the house and saved the house. Nothing was lost but all of her bed clothing. Not even the bed was burned. Mrs. Baugaus has our deepest sympathy. Miss Lucinda is on the sick list this week. There were quite a number of hogs slaughtered last week here. This hard freeze caught eighty some odd in the snow last Saturday. Mr. S. B. Bond, Sr., is manager of the hog killing here. Read the Globe and hear about us.

DOYLE.

Miss Leola Barton met the Tri-County Teacher's Association in Sparta, on Friday night, December 7, 1917, which proved a great success. Many teachers visited the association. Rev. Hamilton of the State Normal was present and delivered an interesting lecture and many good things were spoken for the benefit of our young and old. Miss Minnie Robinson has left for Nashville, where she plans to make her future home. Mrs. Ida Cummings and her daughter little Miss Gertrude, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Mitchell, Sunday evening. Miss Leola Barton called her school together again, December 10th for eight days longer as a donation to the Doyle school where she has served faithfully for the last four months. The parents are to board Miss Barton these eight days free. She has done great work in our school this year and we give her praise for the same. Miss Mandy Evans is very sick at the home of her sister, Mrs. Jellie Storde in Van Buren. We hope her speedy recovery. Her sister, Miss Lella Evans has returned home from Rowlin, on account of the bad weather. Rev. W. M. Holden failed to meet his appointment at Robertson Chapel and met the Sunday school at Doyle Chapel M. E. Church and took an interest in teaching the great lesson and delivered a great lecture to the school on the study of God's word. Sister Bettie Holden was the guest of Miss Millie Mitchell, Sunday morning. Miss Murtie Cummings was the guest of Misses Florie B. and Geneva Crutcher, Sunday evening. Little Misses Mary B. Mitchell, Josie F. Doyle and Mamie Hurd were the guests of little Miss Gertrude Cummings after Sunday school. Mrs. Flora Bartley has returned home from Lenora City. Mrs. Sarah Mazie has gone to her daughter, West of Sparta to spend the winter. James Broyles spent Friday night with Mark Hurd.

SPARTA.

The Benevolent Order No. 215 recently organized at this place is booming. Each and every member seems proud of the order and does not fail to boast it and attend its regular meetings. There is a total membership of forty-two. Our Public School under the leadership of Mrs. A. O'Neal of Nashville, Principal and Mrs. W. J. Cummings assistant, is pushing rapidly to the front. During the present term they have succeeded through the immediate efforts of the Women's Improvement Club to put in a nice rostrum and also electric lights which add much to the appearance as well as to the convenience of the building. The Sunshine Club composed of the girls of the advanced grades made the school a present of some nice white curtains and rods for the windows. The teachers are very proud of the work of these two female clubs, yet the males are not left out for it was by them the rostrum was built in the school house free of cost. There seems to be an educational awakening in this section at present. A Tri-County Teacher's Association composed of White, Warren, and Coffee Counties was organized here during and educational rally called by Mrs. A. O'Neal, Dec. 7 and 8. The following officers were elected. President, Mrs. A. O'Neal, Vice President, Prof. J. F. Anderson, Principal of Tullahoma school, Secretary, Miss Jessie Gwinn of the McMinnville school, Assistant Secretary, Miss Willie Griffee also of the McMinnville school and Treasurer, Mrs. M. J. Cummings of Sparta. The main feature of the meeting was an address by the Rev. T. Wade Hampton of the faculty of the A. and I. State Normal School. There was quite a large audience present and Rev. Hampton held their closest attention for more than an hour. He emphasized the importance of the purity of homelife in the rearing of children, and urged that just as much care is needed in rearing boys as there is in rearing girls and that the same thing that would develop useful and intelligent white boys and girls would develop the same kind of Negro boys and girls. He declared that more and more the times are demanding educated men and women and pointed out that an educated hand prompted hand prompted by an educated mind is the completest asset one could possess at present. He was much pleased with the splendid exhibition of canned fruits and vegetables of the Mothers' Club, and the handicraft and needlework of the school girls and boys. The meeting closed Friday evening with "My Own America, I Love But Thee Alone," sung by the school children. Welcome address in behalf of the Community Improvement Club by Mrs. H. L. Keith, welcome address in the behalf of the teachers of White County by Miss Barton, teachers of the Doyle school response by Miss Jessie Gwinn of McMinnville. Clarinet duet, Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep, Master Wm. Marcus Hamilton and Alfred C. Officer. Comment and remarks by Prof. D. R. Davis, Supt. of Sparta City schools. Quartet, "Star Spangled Banner." Mesdames O'Neal, Randles, Crawford and Kleth. The West Sparta Colored Orchestra, under the direction of Mr. D. C. Officer furnished delightful music for the occasion. This band is of great help to the community. The members of the Improvement Club, namely Mesdames Randles, Irwin, Crawford, Johnson, Moore, Montgomery, Mills, Scott, Keith, O'Neal and Cummings, who not only took care of them in their homes, but served dinner at the school house. These women are excellent cooks and the visitors lavished many compliments upon them. The next meeting is appointed at McMinnville. Mr. Chas. Randles who has been in Detroit, Mich. for the last four months is at home on a visit to his family. He plans to return to Detroit after the holidays.

BELLS.

Sunday was a very cold day, there was no service. Rev. Walker spent Saturday night here en route home. The basket supper that was to be given Saturday night was postponed on account of the heavy snow. Mr. and Mrs. Earnest Blade, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Reed have gone to St. Louis for their future home. MRS. CLARA J. PRIERSON MILLER
It is learned that Mrs. Clara J. Prierson Miller of Kansas City, Mo., is now taking a special course in piano forte and voice in order that she may better fit herself for useful service. Mrs. Miller is the wife of Dr. D. Madison Miller, who finished at Meharry Medical College several years ago. Mrs. Miller will be known among the Nashville people as Miss Clara Frierson. She also assisted in a recital last week that was given by Mr. Roland W. Hayes, in which a chorus of 500 voices participated. Mrs. Miller is also a Pearl High School graduate. ### A GOOD CITIZEN GONE.

Quite a gloom of sadness was spread over the community of Columbia, Tenn., on Tuesday morning, November 21st, at 2 o'clock when Mr. George Smith was called by the Almighty Father from labor to his reward. For many years Mr. Smith and family had lived in the vicinity of Columbia, Tenn., and he was loved by all who knew him. His funeral was conducted at the Rock Glade Primitive Baptist Church where he had been a member for seven years, where he lived a constant Christian and a devoted member. Mr. Smith had been sick for about five years during this time he bore his suffering with patience and would often speak of his readiness for his heavenly home. The following ministers officiated, Dr. Stephenson of Columbia, Rev. Albert Jennings, pastor of the church of which Mr. Smith was a member, Rev. Manuel Jennings, Rev. Wm. Jennings and Rev. Whitaker. All these ministers spoke in the highest esteem of his Christian life. His relatives from Nashville, who attended the funeral were Mrs. Robert Green, Mrs. A. C. Holder, Mr. and Mrs. Felix Mitchell and Mr. Jotie Matthews.

FARMINGTON.

Christmas the greatest holiday of the year will soon be ushered upon us. To some it will bring gladness and joy to others sadness and sorrow. While the Christian world is celebrating the birth of Christ who gave his life for all that Kiaser is taking the of thousands, that he may survive. Let us hope and pray this cruel war may soon cease, that the noble sons who have enlisted in the cause of liberty and right, may be returned to us again. Let us as a race do all we can to show our patriotism and loyalty to the great government under which we live. Our community is now enjoying an era of prosperity. Our farmers are cribbing large quantities of corn after putting several hundred dollars worth on the market. Most every one has hogs enough to kill for his next year meat. Let us sing "Praise God from whom all blessings flow." Our school fair which was to be held here Dec. 14th has been postponed on account of bad weather which prevented the carpenters from finishing our school building on time. The fair will be pulled off just as soon as the carpenters complete their job. Prof. Jones and his boys have finished the primary department's room and have moved into it. The school wishes to thank the following young men who so willingly gave their assistance in helping to pull the primary room. Messrs M. D. Dryden, Ross Dryden, and Burnie Dysart. We wish we had more such boys in our community. We want to thank Rev. E. J. Redick also for his help in our struggles for better school facilities. We are going to make this school building the best in the country. We have the best equipped Negro school in Marshall County. The concert given by the young people at the C. P. Church, on Thanksgiving was a grand success in every way. These young people are to be complimented for their get up of such an excellent program. Miss Annie L. Ewing spent Thanksgiving with relatives in Columbia. We regret to give up Mr. and Mrs. Emanuel Sabatin, who have moved to Shelbyville to live, these good people will be greatly missed here in church and Sunday school. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Robinson are now domiciled in their new home on the Chapel Hill road. Welcome Mr. and Mrs. Robinson. Quite a large number of the ladies of our community met at the school building last Friday afternoon where they were addressed by Prof. Jones on the subject of better school conditions and parental co-operation with teachers. Before leaving each one present assured Prof. Jones of their hearty support in the uplift and future welfare of the Community.
